

100ABCWomen Newsletter

October 2024

Give the Gift of Inspiration

This The 100 Accomplished Black Canadian Women book is more than a gift—it's a celebration of remarkable achievements. Ideal for the holiday season and a must-have for Black History Month, this book is an invaluable resource for deepening Black History Education Curriculum and inspiring future leaders. Share stories that uplift and educate!

2022 100ABCWomen Book - $25

2024 100ABCWomen Book - $50

Click to purchase!

Quote of the Month

"Don't let fear stop you from following your dream and taking risks. Being uncomfortable in the journey leads to success".

Dione Amsterdam

Success Story:

Heritage Canada and TD Funding Enhanced Our 2024 Symposium!

We received funding from Heritage Canada and TD for our 2024 Symposium! Their support helped us create an unforgettable event. Thank you to everyone who participated!

Kickstart Your Career:

CIBC Internships Positions Open!

CIBC is hiring for summer (May-August) and fall (September-December) internships! Explore openings on CIBC's Students and Graduates page, and be sure to mention 100 Accomplished Black Canadian Women as your referral when you apply. Click to learn more!

100ABCWomen Newsletter

October 2024

Celebrating Dr. Donette Chin-Loy Chang

We're so proud to celebrate our very own Dr. Donette Chin-Loy Chang as she becomes the 6th Chancellor of Toronto Metropolitan University! Her passion for leadership, education, and community inspires us all. Congratulations, Donette!

Congrats to Denise Cole, our New Deputy Minister of Education!

Big cheers for Denise Cole, our 2016 Honouree, on her appointment as Deputy Minister of Education! We're excited to see her passion and vision inspire positive change in our schools and communities. Here's to a bright future in education!

Hazelle Palmer, 2020 100ABC Honouree, Awarded Order of Ontario!

We're thrilled to celebrate our own Hazelle Palmer, awarded the Order of Ontario in 2024—the province's highest honour. Her outstanding contributions and leadership inspire us all. Congratulations, Hazelle!

